Spark.A.Vision Screenplay
SCREENPLAY INSTRUCTIONS

Before you fill in the worksheet below, read the examples. This will help you write your vision for your life. Remember, this is your story!

Use positive statements about who you want to be in the future.

This script will help you map out your dreams for the future. After you are finished with your video, watch it often. This will train your brain to make those dreams come true.

When you are done writing answers to the questions, you will be ready to create your Spark.A.Vision video, Who Am I in My Future?

WHAT MAKES ME SPECIAL?

What are your sparks?

What do you love
to do?

What kind of person
are you?

What are three words
that describe you?

What do you like best about yourself?

What are you proud of?

EXAMPLES:

I am a dancer.
I am creative, artistic, and funny.
I love to play basketball.
I am quiet, fun, and do my work.
I am a good leader.

I love to teach others about important things.
I am good at working with animals.
I stand up for the rights of people.
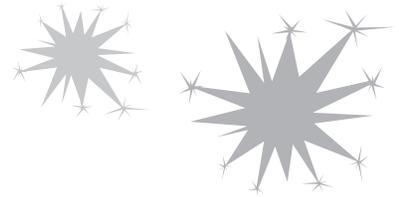

WHO AM I IN MY FUTURE?

Who supports you in your spark(s)?

How far did you go in school?

What career(s) did you study for in school?

What is your job?

Are you married? Do you have children or pets?

Where do you live?

EXAMPLES:

My grandma and sister support me in my sparks.
My parents take me to my football practices and come to all of my games.
I graduated from Michigan with a degree in teaching.
I am a mechanic.
I am married with three children and two dogs.
We live in downtown Minneapolis.
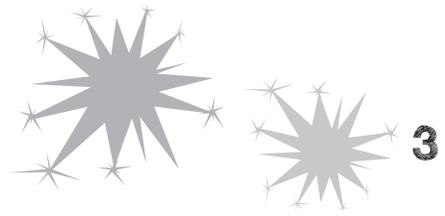

WHAT AM I DOING TO HELP MY COMMUNITY AND THE WORLD?

How are you using your spark to help others?

How are you a spark supporter?

What big cause are you involved in?

What kinds of positive change have you made?

What problems have you helped solve in your home, school, or community?

What do you do to make the world better each day?

EXAMPLES:

I work for a big city and plan what parks look like.
I work at an animal shelter.
I bike to work each day.
I am in the Peace Corps.
I raise money for the poor through my dancing.
I care about helping young children be ready for school.
